ERASE

Taken from the upcoming EP WANE, “Erase” confirms X.irda’s now well-defined artistic signature. After a series of notable collaborations, “Fireman,” “Disguise,” “Distance” and “Rainbows,” X.irda and ReMark have gradually shaped a shared universe, balancing emotional tension with immersive production.

Released on April 24, “Erase” offers a deeply introspective track that reinforces this unique sonic identity. The song continues the trajectory of their work and previews WANE, the EP arriving on June 5, featuring Slovak artist ReMark once again. The EP is now available for pre-save on Spotify.

Since his project Losing Control, X.irda has been crafting a singular universe at the crossroads of trap, pop and melodic rap, an accessible yet compelling mix driven by emotional depth and cinematic, immersive production.

His writing, simultaneously vulnerable and assertive, transforms raw emotions into tangible artistic expression. With two albums released in 2024 and 2025, over one million YouTube views and 500,000 streams on Spotify, X.irda is steadily establishing himself as a rising figure in the international and French-speaking independent music scene.

INDELEBILE

“Erase” is the heart of X.irda’s upcoming EP WANE, a track that confronts memory as an unshakable weight. Blending melodic rap with emotional hip-hop, the production layers airy textures over sharp, driving beats, while ReMark delivers a performance that balances tension and release. Every pause and breath feels charged, part of a search for light in the shadows.

The track’s impact extends to its music video, a visual narrative that moves from the grounded past to a fragile, hyper-technological future. This shift mirrors today’s world, where the past lingers, stability is fleeting, and we are all navigating constant change.

Fragmented timelines, solitude, and underlying tension give the visuals a cinematic force, turning the song’s intimate struggle into a reflection of a larger, almost systemic chaos.

With “Erase,” X.irda proves his ability to fuse raw emotion with universal resonance, crafting a sonic and visual experience that lingers long after the final note.

WANE balances sonic precision with artistic vision, mastered by ProdByJersey, a double-platinum producer who has worked with Ninho, Jul and Werenoi, reflecting the professional skill and meticulous craft behind this independent release.

“Erase” confirms the rise of a cohesive artistic project, demonstrating the careful attention to detail and the fully realized creative vision, where music and visuals engage in dialogue to create a fully immersive experience.

Released on April 24 as the first and only single from the upcoming EP WANE, due June 5, X.irda continues to explore a universe of memory, chaos and rebirth, crafting a meticulously produced musical journey that is not only heard, but deeply felt.that is not just heard, but deeply felt.
