

WAITING FOR YOU

I can't wait a minute
I can't stay & finish
What I've started
Times getting harder
Any other day
Any other night
I reminisce the past
Thinking it would last
Oh, how I tricked myself into thinking
That this would be worthy of my sinning

I don't think you like me
No you don't excite me
You're my poison ivy
Cant you see what I see
We're drifting apart
You think that you're smart
Lets go back to the start

My cigarette ashtray
Im waiting for you to go that way
Lets maybe do it over, over, over
Again,
I know you want it,
So don't pretend

I can't wait a minute
I can't stay & finish
What I've started
Times getting harder
Any other day
Any other night
I reminisce the past
Thinking it would last
Oh, how I tricked myself into thinking
That this would be worthy of my sinning

And,
We're so far gone
Our love is done
There is nothing
Left for us
There is nothing to discuss
