

DISGUISE

[Chorus]

You gave it all away
Revealed my misery
Taking away everything that I have tried to build
Done it so selfishly.
How was I supposed to see what's coming
What's coming
Fuck attaching broken hearts to ashes, I'm still fading, I'm still fading Fuck this practice, love is just a bastard in disguise and playing, a character that doesn't exist

[Verse]

Goin' through the emotions, tryna find myself Blaming it on me, why'd you wanna put me through this hell Puffin' on green, to forget about the times we spent.
Sippin' codeine, just to make sure that I'm heaven sent I don't want a single memory, throw it all away, Why'd you wanna find a better me instead of a helping hand Now we're stuck here as enemies, all over again
Broken synergy, it's a curse, not a spell Taking away my lifeblood Taking away my heart Taking away all I've lost
And putting it at the start

[Chorus]

You gave it all away
Revealed my misery
build
Done it so selfishly
How was I supposed to see what's coming
What's coming
Fuck attaching broken hearts to ashes, I'm still fading
I'm still fading
Fuck this practice, love is just a bastard in disguise and playing A character that doesn't exist
