When X.irda and ReMark crossed paths in 2023, the connection was instant.

A new musical era begins with the artistic encounter between X.irda and ReMark. Their debut single, "Disguise", released on March 28 along with a striking music video, marks the beginning of a collaboration that redefines the boundaries between pop and rap.

Born in Lyon in 2001, X.irda began his musical journey as a teenager, first exploring electro and piano before fully diving into music production after 2021. On the other hand, ReMark, born in Bratislava in 2006, immersed himself in music from childhood, transitioning from electro and rock to singing and rapping in 2019. A precocious songwriter, he wrote his first lyrics on an iPad.

"Working with ReMark has been a big change for me," says X.irda. "His energy and creativity bring something unique. He has an incredible and underrated talent. His voice, shifting between lyrical and rock, is simply amazing."

For his part, ReMark has nothing but praise: "X.irda is one of the most talented artists I've worked with. It's a real pleasure to collaborate with him."
